

2nd April 2015

Head Teacher Awards - Well Done to

Connor and Oliver in Yellow class for their magnificent maths.

Deputy Head Teacher Awards - Well Done to

Lily, Indie and Mercedes, Ayaan, Ben and Kei, Vaidika and Kacey all from Yellow Class for their excellent Easter songs in Music!

Year 2 – Recorder Lessons

From the beginning of this term year 2 children have been learning to play the recorder. To first gain an understanding of music the children have learnt about the dynamics – how loud or quiet a note is. They have moved on to learning about rhythms and playing a few notes on the recorder.

I hope they have been playing for you at home!

Year 1 – Easter Cards

Year 1 have been busy making an Easter card to take home for their families.

Using shapes cut from card, colouring pens and feathers – and of course a generous amount of glue - they created a chick emerging from a cracked egg!

I know you will enjoy displaying them at home.

Reception – Easter Crafts

Reception children have been really creative this week.

They have made mosaic Easter cards, created Easter baskets from coloured paper and using special paints they marbled eggs.

I know they will enjoy sharing their work with you.

Thank you for all the families who helped organise and run the Easter Fair and to all those who came along to support it – it was fantastic to see so many of our families there enjoying themselves. We haven't finished counting the proceeds yet but we will let you know how much has been raised towards our goal of buying iPads. The Easter Bunny's name was Buttercup and has gone to a good home!
